

SEXUALITY SURVEY

The Institute for Medicine, Psychology & Religion

This set of questions is about parents' and teenagers' attitudes towards sex and sex education. We are hoping that the information we obtain from this survey will help us understand experiences concerning sex education of teens and parents in America today to assist in developing more effective sex education in the home. More information is available online at www.inmpr.org.

Thank you for returning your completed survey to The Institute for Medicine, Psychology & Religion, P.O. Box 380958, Cambridge, MA, 02238

Confidentiality: Your participation in this survey is voluntary and all answers will be kept confidential. If there is a question that you do not wish to answer, you can skip it and move on to the next question.

1. Age: _____

2. Gender (Please check one): a. Male _____ b. Female _____

3. How would you characterize your sex education?

4. What was the most useful thing you learned in sex education? Why?

5. What was the most difficult aspect of your sex education? Why?

6. Who was most helpful to you in your sex education? How so?

7. What do you think is most important to emphasize for children to learn about sex and who or what institution should be responsible for this?

8. How do you feel your ethnic, socioeconomic, religious, and political background influenced your sex education? And how have these factors influenced your sexual choices?

9. Are there any stories that you feel particularly capture your experience of sex education?

10. What would your ideal sex education have been/be like, and, if applicable, would you want the same education for your kids?

Further Comments:

Institute of Medicine, Psychology, and Religion
P.O. Box 380958
Cambridge, MA 02238
www.inmpr.org